DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is responsive to communications: Application filed on 06/21/00.

Election/Restrictions

2. Applicant elects without traverse of Claims 38-92, in response to examiner's request for restriction, via applicant's attorney (Hans Troesch).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. Claims 38-92 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Raman, US# 6,249,794 B1.

The applied reference has a common Assignee and Inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

As per claim 38, Raman teaches "generating a description of an application that produced the document" (see col. 1, lines 36-50) "generating a description of a location from which the document can be obtained" (see col. 2, lines 26-56) "generating a description of an operation that can be performed on the document" (see col. 2, lines 40-58).

As per claims 39-41, Raman teaches "a uniform resource locator" (see abstract).

As per claims 42 and 44, Raman teaches "a transformation of the document from a file stored in a first storage format to a file stored in a second storage format; and the operation produces a second document description file that describes the file stored in the second storage format" (see col. 2, lines 35-60).

As per claims 43 and 45, Raman teaches "wherein the second document description file describes the first document description file" (see col. 2, lines 40-60).

As per claim 46, Raman teaches "the information extracted from the document describes a range of pages of the document" (see col. 2, lines 52-67).

As per claim 47, Raman teaches "the document represents a multi-layered graphical object, and the information extracted from the document describes a subset of the layers of the multi-layered graphical object" (see col. 1, lines 55-67 and col. 2, lines 1-20).

As per claims 48-50, Raman teaches "generating application-specific data describing the document" (see col. 3, lines 30-67).

As per claim 51, Raman teaches "generating a field containing information describing the document" (see col. 4, lines 1-20 and 36-50).

As per claim 52, Raman teaches "wherein the field is an HTTP header" (see col. 5, lines 22-30).

As per claims 53-55, Raman teaches "the field describes a date on which the document was produced" (see col. 11, lines 25-45).

As per claim 56, Raman teaches "the field describes content contained in the document" (see col. 7, lines 1-12).

As per claim 57, Raman teaches "the content of the first document description file is represented in XML syntax" (see col. 5, lines 51-60).

As per claims 58-60, Raman teaches "receiving the request the first document description file from a client . . ." (see col. 1, lines 36-67) "generating a second document description file describing the information derived from the first document" (see col. 1, lines 53-67 and col. 2, lines 1-25).

As per claims 61, 65, and 69 Raman teaches "wherein the information . . . the first document comprises a second document" (see col. 1, lines 36-67).

As per claims 62, 64, and 68 Raman teaches "wherein the second document description file" (see col. 1, lines 36-65).

As per claims 63 and 67, Raman teaches "a uniform resource locator" (see col. 8, lines 44-56).

As per claim 66, Raman teaches "a pointer to the first document" (see col. 8, lines 35-67).

As per claims 70-73, these claims are rejected on grounds corresponding to the arguments given above for rejected claims 38, 42, 44, and 47 and are similarly rejected.

As per claims 74-78, these claims are rejected on grounds corresponding to the arguments given above for rejected claims 38, 58-61 and 65 and are similarly rejected.

Art Unit: 2172

As per claim 79-84, these claims are rejected on grounds corresponding to the arguments given above for rejected claims 74-78 and are similarly rejected including the following:

--Raman teaches "the first and second computer-readable media are the same . . ." (see col. 15, lines 5-25).

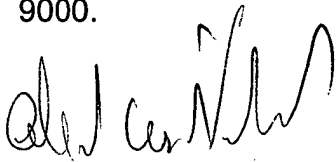

As per claims 85-88 and 89-92, these claims are rejected on grounds corresponding to the arguments given above for rejected claims 58-64 and are similarly rejected.
